

Allied and Scientific Health Research Forum

Allied and Scientific Health Office

ILLUMINATING
VALUE

9:00am – 4:00pm | Wednesday 18 September 2024 | SAHMRI Auditorium

- 8:30am Registrations open
- 9:00am Welcome to Country
Mr Robert Taylor
- 9:05am Welcome
Dr Ingrid Lensink, Chief Allied and Scientific Health Officer
- 9:15am Opening Address
The Honourable Chris Picton, Minister for Health and Wellbeing
- 9:25am 'The Importance of Research Impact'
Wendy Keech, Executive Director Health Translation SA
- 9:30am Keynote presentation
- 'Words Matter: Harnessing pain science and allied health expertise in osteoarthritis management'
Associate Professor Tasha Stanton, Co-Director IIMPACT in Health at the University of South Australia & lead of the Persistent Pain Research Group at SAHMRI
- 10:15 -10:45am Morning tea, networking & poster viewing

10:45 -12:30pm Abstract presentations – Session 1

- 10:45am Joseph Orlando
Hospitalisations for low back pain in people presenting to South Australian public hospital emergency departments.
- 11:00am Ying Li Liang
Extended hours partnered prescribing.
- 11:15am Elizabeth Kapur
Impact of a novel gastrostomy feeding app (PEG Ed), an interactive decision-making tool for patients and their families living with Motor Neurone Disease.
- 11:30am Rose Green
Does group physiotherapy improve pain scores and reduce the impact of pelvic pain for women referred with persistent pelvic pain?

OFFICIAL

- 11:45am Clementine Labroschiano
Predicting readmissions following acute myocardial infarction: Insights from the CADOSA Registry.
- 12:00pm Amanda Weragoda & Dr Ben Riley
Development of a therapist-assisted AI chatbot to facilitate help-seeking and engagement with cognitive behaviour therapy for problem gambling.
- 12:15pm Duncan Lodge
Outpatient redesign involving allied health triage and assessment to support a reduction in neurosurgery waiting lists.
- 12:30-1:30pm Lunch, networking & poster viewing

1:30-2:30 pm Abstract presentations – Session 2

- 1:30pm Marion Champion
Aboriginal health consumers' voices informing the provision of culturally safe and sensitive hospital Social Work practice in NALHN.
- 1:45pm Dr Suzanne Dawson
Co-designing a mental health employment program with individuals who experience borderline personality disorder.
- 2:00pm Hannah Snelling
Improving telemedicine delivery for Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people with diabetes related foot complications using virtual reality technology.
- 2:15pm Monique Adams
Improving clinical and service outcomes for patients admitted with hip fracture – RISE: RECOVERY; INTENSIVE; SURGICAL; EARLY
- 2:30pm Comfort break & People's Choice Award voting
- 2:35pm Interactive Panel Session hosted by Professor Saravana Kumar:

'The Clinician Researcher Journey'
Rohan Miegel, Senior Physiotherapist Cancer Care, SALHN
Samantha Plush, Senior Gastroenterology Dietitian, CALHN

'Executive Insights: Tuning into executive research interests'
Chris King, Executive Director Allied Health CALHN
Sandra Parr, Executive Director Allied Health NALHN
- 3:30pm Awards and closing remarks
Dr Ingrid Lensink, Chief Allied and Scientific Health Officer
- 3:45pm Event close